Well insured via your employer

Congratulations on your new job! Your employer believes your health is important and has therefore opted for the group health insurance of Menzis. That means you and your co-insured family members will receive a discount on additional (dental) insurances and other benefits too. After all, Menzis not only covers your medical expenses, but also focuses on vitality: the positive force of leading a healthy life. That means we help you do the things that are important to you – whether you are sick or in good health.

Extra benefits via Menzis and your employer for you and your co-insured family members

- Discount of up to €75 on prescription glasses or sunglasses;
- Discount on a bicycle;
- A free health check;
- A free nutritional advice;
- And much more!
